HONGKONG, SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1908.

"THE STATE OF DENMARK"

USTIN His Honour the Chief Justice has given judgment in regard to the recent case, Leung Lai Nam and others versus Renter, Brocksman and Co., where we were perforce compelled to withhold any comment upon incidents arising out of that case. Now, however, we are at liberty to give expression to our views and we intend to do so, not out of any sentiment of hostility to His Lordship Sir Francis Piggott, but because to keep silence would seem to be shirking an obvious public duty.We direct the attention of the Government to an incident which occurred during the Chief Justice's summing up in the case in question. We quote from the report:His Lordship said that justice was done, and that the case was decided on the merits. He said that the case was decided on the merits, and that the case was decided on the merits.The case was decided on the merits, and
the case was decided on the merits.The case was decided on the merits, and
the case was decided on the merits.The case was decided on the merits, and
the case was decided on the merits.The case was decided on the merits, and
the case was decided on the merits.The case was decided on the merits, and the case was decided on the merits.were liable to drop certain expressions which did not express the real views of learned Counsel, and which were subsequently referred to in the newspapers that everything did not appear satisfactory in the "State of Denmark."Hon. Mr Pollock—I am sorry, my Lord, but I must hear what your Lordship says.
His Lordship expressed regret and reported his statement.Hon. Mr Pollock—Whatever I have said I cannot retract.His Lordship (most emphatically) Then I must deal with it. I was going to put a golden bridge over the incident, but I say that the suggestion was absolutely ridiculous. The suggestion that my decisions were improperly given in favour of one party or the other is absolutely ridiculous and unjustified. I have looked at my notes and I find that five or six points instantly prior to the suggestion were decided in Mr Pollock's favour. I had hoped that it would have passed over, but now I cannot pass over it when it was made in the presence of a jury and before the representatives of the newspapers present.In case readers may have forgotten the incident referred to by His Lordship we again quote from the report:Mr M. Slade, who appeared for the plaintiffs had called Mr Dixon, of Messrs Hastings and Hastings, to give evidence regarding plaintiff's partnership book.Hon. Mr Pollock—If that evidence is admitted it will give me the right to cross-examine the witnesses on his instructions, and that opens up the question of privilege.His Lordship—It is not altogether the question of privilege.Hon. Mr Pollock—Will your Lordship allow me to argue the point? Your Lordship can be against me or not—His Lordship—I may be against you or for you. I very much object to that suggestion.Hon. Mr Pollock—Your Lordship, I can only speak from experience.His Lordship—Your experience is absolutely wrong and I shall have to address the jury on that point.Hon. Mr Pollock—I don't see what it has to do with the jury.His Lordship—Because these remarks are merely suggestions thrown out to the jury, very improper suggestions with regard to a judge in the presence of the jury.Hon. Mr Pollock—I don't wish to further argue, your Lordship, but I must have an opinion on this matter. As long as I have the honour to be counsel here I shall express my opinion.His Lordship—If counsel express opinions with regard to the presiding judge they cannot expect it to be approved.Hon. Mr Pollock—That is a rather novel doctrine—that counsel cannot criticise anything a judge does.

His Lordship—Certainly not.

Hon. Mr Pollock, continued his argument.On the day that this report appeared we published a paragraph deploring the occurrence of such incidents in the Court and stating that there was a suspicion abroad that all was not well in "Denmark." His Lordship the Chief Justice himself supplied the proof that the suspicion was well founded. Our paragraph was purposely vague but the Chief Justice has thought fit to assume that it has been intended to suggest that his decisions have been improperly given in favour of one party or another. It is clearly within the right of the Chief Justice to put what construction he pleases upon Mr Pollock's remark and our paragraph and it is not for us to affirm or deny the correctness of his assumption.But the refusal of Mr Pollock to retract anything that he had said, and His Lordship's allusion to putting a "golden bridge over the incident," supply sufficient proof that our statement that there was suspicion that all was not well in "Denmark" was an under-statement. It appears to us that some action on the part of the Government is clearly demanded.Without expressing any view with regard to the rights and wrongs involved we consider that the position is one which cannot be permitted to endure.Now that His Lordship himself has publicly alluded to differences between himself and Counsel the Government has the right to seek to rectify whatever may be found to be wrong. We have discharged our duty in again directing attention to the matter. The onus is now on the Government.Grand Secretary Chang Chih Tung has disagreed with Mr. E. Yan Shih on the matter of Education. The Grand Secretary proposes that there shall be separate schools for each branch of study, the latter replied that for military education it was not the same as for civil education, and that the Chinese should be taught in the Chinese language, and that the English should be taught in the English language.The Chinese Engineering and Mining Company, Limited, state that the total output of the Company's three mines for the week ending 11th July amounted to 25,119.27 tons, and the sales during the period to 16,450.89 tons.The railway between Chumatin and Hsiping was destroyed at noon on the 18th July by an overflow of the river there and the train from Peking stopped at Hsichow and all the trains from Hankow to Peking have stopped running.From the Globe: "Awful bore, this closing of the opium dens," muttered the drowsy Chinaman as he read the public notice to that effect in the streets of Hongkong. "I think I'll join the police-force.
Simply must have an sleep."A Seoul message dated July 14th says that Yang Ki-tak, editor of the Korean edition, "Korea Daily News" was arrested on the 12th charged with embezzling funds raised for redeeming Korea's debts to Japan.
More arrests are expected.Plague is now more nearly extinct than at any time previously during the past ten years, says a Simla despatch of the 9th instant. There were, last week, in the entire Empire of India, only 238 deaths and in Burma 167 deaths from this disease.It is telegraphed from Nagasaki that owing to the prevalent dullness of the shipbuilding industry the Directors of the Mitsubishi yard have conferred as to the proposed discharge of superannuated workmen. A reform of the yard will be carried out in October next.A. Lewis and C. A. Hill have lodged an appeal in the Court of Cassation against the decision given on July 8th in the Tokyo Appeal Court confirming the judgment delivered in the Yokohama District Court. The hearing is expected to take place after the summer vacation.Two hundred cases of typhus have occurred in the marine corps, Yokosuka, Japan owing to an outbreak of the epidemic on board the armoured cruiser Yakumo. To make room for these men, five ordinary in-patients have been removed to the repair ship Canton Maru.Mayor Ozaki of Tokyo and the members of the Tokyo Municipal Council tendered their resignation on July 13. It is generally believed that their resignation was connected with the rejection by the Central Government of the application for the municipalization of the Tokyo Railway.On the 12th, over one hundred employees of salt manufacturers at Aboshi, Kobe Prefecture, struck work. They have since obtained employment at the Celluloid Factory which is now under construction there. The strike is due to the refusal of the employers to raise the men's daily wages to 80 sen from 41.5 sen.The suit is still in the Courts, says a Japanese exchange, in which Mrs. Appel-ler and her four children claim from the Ozaki Shosha Kaisha damages amounting to Yen 80,850 for the loss of husband and father in addition to Yen 6,000 for each plaintiff as solatium for their bereavement.
The case was opened as far back as September 1905.Keen competition is now going on between the Rising Sun, the Standard Oil and the Japanese kerosene companies on the Japanese market. At first, the latter lowered the market price by 10 sen.
Whereupon the Standard Oil Company also cut down the price by some 18 sen.
The Rising Sun too followed their example and lowered its quotation by some 20 sen.A Tairen telegram to the "Kokumun" states that dullness prevails throughout Tairen. Many firms in Tairen are being closed or re-adjusted. The situation will become worse with the close of the month. It is said to be attributable to the effects of the dullness in Japan, the ruinous fall of silver, the slow progress of the South Mandarin Railway, and the general dullness of trade.The Chinese Government has decided to send a large number of Chinese to the United States to work on the Panama

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

It has been decided to appoint a Chinese Consul in Amman and France has established a French Consulate at Mukden.The police force at Shihmu have had quarrels with the soldiers in the garrison there and General Hung has sent deputies to settle the disputes.Edward Hinton, a fireman of the S. S.
Barro, was fined $5 or 7 days, at the Magistrate's court, for behaving in a disorderly manner in Connaught Road.Mr C. M. Marquis, who claims to be the Chinese agent of the United States, has just stripped 320 sheep in eight hours, which works out at a minute and a half for each animal.It is notified in the "Gazette" that the Police Magistrate's Department is excluded from the operation of the Public Holidays Ordinance on August 3. The day is to be observed as a holiday by other departments.The Chinese Engineering and Mining Company, Limited, state that the total
25,119.27 tons, and the sales during the
period to 16,450.89 tons.The railway between Chumatin and Hsiping was destroyed at noon on the 18th July by an overflow of the river there and
the train from Peking stopped at Hsichow
notice to that effect in the streets of Hongkong. "I think I'll join the police-force.
Simply must have an sleep."A Seoul message dated July 14th says
that Yang Ki-tak, editor of the Korean
raised for redeeming Korea's debts to Japan.
in the entire Empire of India, only 238
disease.It is telegraphed from Nagasaki that
proposed discharge of superannuated work-
men. A reform of the yard will be carried out in
the decision given on July 8th in the
Tokyo Appeal Court confirming the judgment delivered in the Yokohama District
occurred in the marine corps, Yokosuka,
Yakumo. To make room for these men,
five ordinary in-patients have been
removed to the repair ship Canton Maru.Mayor Ozaki of Tokyo and the members of the Tokyo Municipal Council
Central Government of the application for
the municipalization of the Tokyo Railway.On the 12th, over one hundred employees of salt manufacturers at Aboshi,
since obtained employment at the Celluloid
ler and her four children claim from the
father in addition to Yen 6,000 for each
plaintiff as solatium for their bereavement.
The case was opened as far back as
September 1905.Keen competition is now going on be-
lowered the market price by 10 sen.
also cut down the price by some 18 sen.
The Rising Sun too followed their example
effects of the dullness in Japan, the ruinous
United
